Your prayer changes lives

As a Christian organisation, we know that there is real power in prayer and we are grateful to those who are committed to regularly praying for us.

As we continue to live out our ethos and values, daily reliance on God through prayer is of central importance. We know that those praying for us have a significant impact.

Our reliance on prayer

Our founder, Dr Selina Fox, reminds us of how important it is to completely rely on God in her book 'A Chain Of Prayer Across The Ages.' In the book, she writes of how God speaks to 'the hearts and minds of men in no uncertain words, and saying in terms which could not be misunderstood.' God tells us: "without ME ye can do nothing."

Throughout our history we have relied on, and given thanks to, God for His perfect sovereignty, which underpins everything we do. As we continue looking to God, we can confidently rejoice in the knowledge that He is guiding us and providing the wisdom we need to continue doing His work.

As well as guidance and wisdom, we are completely reliant on God to provide us with the compassion we need so as to best support those entrusted to our care. God gloriously demonstrated this for all mankind through Jesus' life, death and resurrection, and we seek to demonstrate something of this love and compassion in all that we do.

Prayer is effective

The Bible explains that the prayers of the righteous are powerful and effective (James 5:16). We can therefore be confident that God both hears and responds to the prayers of His people.

In her book, Dr Fox also helpfully reminds us of this, as she quotes from a number of letters she had received which explain that 'there seem few events which cannot now be met by some appropriate and uplifting petition.'

What should I pray for?

If you feel that you would like to support us in this way, we would love to hear from you.

We will keep in touch by sending you information or a regular prayer diary to guide you as you pray. We will send this either by post or email, whichever method you would prefer.

We look forward to hearing from you and welcoming you as one of our friends. You can get in touch through the contact details on the back page of this insert.
